VERSE 1

C F C
Before the mountains found their footing in the ancient stone
Am G F
Before the rivers learned the way they'd always run
C F C
Before the darkness heard the word that called the light to come
Am G F
And set the world spinning underneath the sun
G F C
His throne was set, his glory already shown

CHORUS

F G C Am
Before the mountains stood before the ocean floor was laid
F G C
Before the first wave broke or the first wind blew
F G C Am
He was robed in light and glory, strong before the world was made
F G C
A sovereign without shadow, tried and true
Am G F C
The seas may lift their voices, but they bow before his name
F G C
He was King before the mountains ever came

VERSE 2

C F C
The waters found their voices, thundering to the sky
Am G F
The deep was heaving, restless, dark and wide
C F C
Ten thousand waves went crashing where the great and fearless tide
Am G F
Came rolling like a force that couldn't die
G F C
But mightier still, the one who holds the line

CHORUS

F G C Am
Before the mountains stood before the ocean floor was laid
F G C
Before the first wave broke or the first wind blew
