VERSE 1

C F C G
I found myself inside a dream that wasn't mine to hold
Am F G
The night was torn apart by fire and ancient light
C F C G
A throne set like a river burning bright as polished gold
Am F G
And one who sat upon it robed in white
F C G
Ten thousand times ten thousand filled the vast and trembling hall
Am F G
A multitude beyond the reach of names
C F C G
The books were opened one by one before the Lord of all
Am F G
And silence fell across the endless flames

CHORUS

C F G
One like the Son of Man came riding on the clouds
Am F G
He stood before the Ancient of Days in fire and light
C F G Am
Authority and glory placed into his hands
F C G
Every nation every tongue every heart
F G
Ten thousand times ten thousand – endless and bright

VERSE 2

C F C G
He crossed the floor of heaven like a king who'd always known
Am F G
The way back to the father's open door
C F C G
And everything was given – every throne beneath the throne
Am F G
Every tongue and tribe and nation every shore
F C G
Not borrowed and not fragile not a crown that men could break
Am F G
Not a power built on sand or shifting ground

C F C G
An everlasting dominion given freely for his sake
Am F G
The kind of kingdom death itself can't drown

CHORUS

C F G
One like the Son of Man came riding on the clouds
Am F G
He stood before the Ancient of Days in fire and light
C F G Am
Authority and glory placed into his hands
F C G
Every nation every tongue every heart
F G
Ten thousand times ten thousand – endless and bright

BRIDGE

Am F C G
I woke with fire still burning in my chest
Am F G
With words that couldn't carry what I'd seen
Am F C G
What language holds the weight of all the rest
Am F G
When you've stood inside the space between
F C G
But this I know – his kingdom will not fall
Am F G
No shadow no corruption no decay
C F C G
The one who rode the clouds is Lord of all
Am F G
And that dominion will not pass away

CHORUS

C F G
One like the Son of Man came riding on the clouds
Am F G
He stood before the Ancient of Days in fire and light
C F G Am
Authority and glory placed into his hands
F C G
Every nation every tongue every heart
F G
Ten thousand times ten thousand – endless and bright

CLOSER

F
Ten thousand times ten thousand
G C
And still – not words enough
