VERSE 1

G C
Hands full of dust, heart full of cracks
Em D
I tried to hide every line, every lack
G C
But You looked low and called my name
Em D
Poured Your glory in this common frame

CHORUS

G C
You put Your treasure in these jars of clay
Em D
So the world can see it's You, not the strength I claim
G C
Pressed on every side, but I'm not crushed
Em D
Struck down in the fight, but I rise in trust
C D G
You put Your treasure in these jars of clay

VERSE 2

G C
Storm in my chest, wind in my face
Em D
Questions like waves breaking over my faith
G C
Still in the dark, I feel Your stay
Em D
Power alive in this fragile place

CHORUS

G C
You put Your treasure in these jars of clay
Em D
So the world can see it's You, not the strength I claim
G C
Pressed on every side, but I'm not crushed
Em D
Struck down in the fight, but I rise in trust
C D G
You put Your treasure in these jars of clay

BRIDGE

Em C
I am chipped, I am worn
G D
But Your light keeps shining on
Em C
Through each fracture, through each scar
G D
You are strong right where we are
Em C
I am chipped, I am worn
G D
But Your light keeps shining on
Em C
Through each fracture, through each scar
G D
All-surpassing, You are God

CHORUS

G C
You put Your treasure in these jars of clay
Em D
So the world can see it's You, not the strength I claim
G C
Pressed on every side, but I'm not crushed
Em D
Struck down in the fight, but I rise in trust
C D G
You put Your treasure in these jars of clay

OUTRO

C D G
(End on a slow, ringing G chord)
